The News.

Simultaneously with the glorious news brought by telegraph in regard to the results of the election—on which we all calculated with a certainty which could only be occasioned by full assurance—comes the information in regard to the capture and destruction of the pirate Florida, a result to be hailed with joy by all true men. We are not as yet, fully able to give all the particulars or to know with full certainty, how far an international question may arise from the reported circumstance of the capture having taken place in a neutral port. We shall know in a few days all the details so as better and more understandingly to express an opinion; but it seems to us so necessary and desirable an object to rid the seas of that craven pirate, that we should not much hesitate personally as to the propriety of ignoring some portion of international or maritime law, so as to put a thorough end to the outrageous and infamous proceedings of which she and her consorts have been guilty.

From the seat of war we have but little, but all the news received is of the most encouraging character, so much so indeed, that we take it now certainly for granted that the rebellion will be subdued and peace declared ere another year. The effect of the disbanding of our soldiers, and the return of such masses of men from grievances to the peaceful pursuits of life, will have a marked effect on the times, which will in some respects for a short time, work apparent injury, but will in the end, be productive of real good. One evident result from the war is this, viz: that we shall henceforward maintain a standing army at least ten times stronger than the nominal one which we had previous to the war;—that our navy will necessarily be augmented to a corresponding or some greater extent—and while these two openings will afford a safety-valve for the surplus energy of the bone and sinew of the country, it is to be hoped that the official positions in each may be so bestowed that all the honors shall never as heretofore, be the appanage either of a few families, or of any one particular section of country. We have learned a great deal by experience in this bitter war, and though the lesson has been costly, yet it is so manifest that we had need of it, that we can hardly consider the loss commensurate with the gain.

AGAIN HURRAH!!!—With the overwhelming majorities of Lincoln and Johnson, comes the report that the hero Sherman has burned Hood's anticipated stronghold, sent his supplies to Chattanooga, and marches on to Charleston with 40,000 of his chivalrous army.

We have just received a large and complete assortment of Cards, such as Ball, Wedding, Visiting, Programme and Commercial of all colors, sizes and patterns. Also a fine lot, suitable for Tickets, or any description of Job Work

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

Election Returns from California, Oregon and Nevada.

San Francisco, Nov. 9th.

Returns from 24 counties, show a majority for Lincoln of 13,266. Full returns will increase this to at least 20,000.

Oregon has gone for Lincoln by 1500 to 2,000 majority.

The new State of Nevada gives Lincoln from 2 to 3,000 majority.

The election everywhere passed off quietly.

SAILED.—Ship Invincible, for N. York.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

FURTHER ELECTION RETURNS.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 9th.

Illinois gives 20,000. Cook county, 3,500 Union. Douglas county, 225 Union. Whiteside, 1,800 Champaign, 900 Union. Logan, 300 U. Sangamon, 500 Democratic. Peoria, 400 Dem. McLean, 1,000 Union. Grundy, 600 Union. Lee, 550 Union. De Kalb, 2,000 Union. LaSalle, 1,000 Union. Kane county, eight towns, 941 Union. Hill, 1,000 Democratic. Kankakee, 500 Union. Jo Daviess county, 114 Democratic. Winnebago, 1,400 Union. Kendall county, two towns, 40 Union. Ogle, 500 U. Knox county, Galesburg, 1,033 Union. Tazwell county, Pekin 118 Democratic. Marshall county, Laclede 26 Democratic. Henry, 1,500 Union. Bureau county, Princeton 263 Union. Coles county, Mattoon 453 Union. Lake, 1,977 Union. Carroll county, Savana 122 Union. DuPage, 600 Union. McHenry co., Woodstock 112 Union. Adams co., Quincy 414 Democratic.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 8th.

The State has gone Union, and will probably give a small Union majority in the Legislature. The Democrats lose Congressmen in the 8th, 13th and 7th districts, and probably Harris in the 4th or Quincy district. The Unionists elect State Senators in Madison and St. Clair counties. This insures the Unionists a majority in the State Senate, and a U. S. Senator from this State in place of Richardson.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9th—3 a. m.

It is now believed that the Republicans have a majority in both branches of the Legislature, and elect three Congressmen.

LATER.—Kane county, 2,800 Union. McLean, 1,300 Union. Macoupin, 400 U. Bureau, 1,500 Union. Sangamon, only 100 Dem. maj. Effingham, 1,000 Union. Chicago, 1,703 Union.

INDIANA.

The returns from the State indicate a Union majority of 35,000, with large Union gains over the October election. Marion county gives 9,000 Union, maj. Returns from the 5th district show large gains. Michigan City gives 20 Union. Laporte, 209 Union.

LATER.—Indianapolis, 1,000 Union. Wabash, 620 Union. Elkhart, 300 Union. Noble, 500 Union. Union co., 88 Union. Returns thus far received show large Union gains over the October election. Lincoln's majority in the State will not be less than 30,000.

IAWA.

Des Moines, Iowa, 9th.

There seems to have been a full vote, judging from returns now received, which indicate a larger majority than that of last year. We carry every Congressional District by increased majorities. Keokuk, 430 Union. Dubuque, and Julian township, 360 Democratic.

Clinton, Iowa, 9th.

Clinton, 105 Union. Massillon township, 25 Union. Oxford township, Jones Co., 84 Union. Wyoming township, 81 Union. Franklin township, Lynn Co., 299 Lincoln; 74 Dem. Clarence, Union majority. De Witt, Clinton county, 109 Union.

MICHIGAN.

Michigan returns received indicate a Union maj. of 1,500 on the home vote. Detroit, 960 Dem. Wayne county, 1,650 Dem. Lenawee county, 1,200 Union. Calhoun county, 1,000 Union. Kalamazoo county, 1,000 Union. Iowa county, 900 Union. Shiawassa county, 130 Union. Kent county, 250 Union.

The vote of New York City, stands thus: Lincoln, 36,423; McClellan, 32,329. The city vote at the last Governor election was as follows: Republican, 36,122; Democrat, 73,727.

Later, Detroit 9th.—Republicans claim to have carried the State by 15,000 majority. Returns are meagre. Monroe county, Dem. maj. 140. Coldwater, 96 Union. Adrian, 65 Union. Madison, 95 Union. Burfield, 48 Union. Blissfield, 79 Union. Franklin, 118 Union. Tecumseh and Adrian city give Lincoln 104. The county will give him 1,200.

Wayne county, 2,000 Dem. Hudson, 243 Union. Hillsdale county, 15 towns, give 1,500 Union. Jackson county, large Democratic gains. Returns from different parts of the State show large Union gains over the October election. The Union majority will exceed 40,000 on the home vote.

OHIO.

Cincinnati, 6,000 Union. Columbus, 462 Dem. Clark county, 1,500 Union. Green county, 2,000 Union. Painesville, 385 Union. St. Paul, 606 Union. Youngstown, 20 Union. Urbana, 150 Union. Springfield, 642 Union. Chagrin Falls, 1,248 Union. Akron, 702 Union. Ashland, 8 Union. The State is estimated 75,000 Union. Toledo, 242 Union. Oberlin, 142 Union. York township, Sandusky county, 163 Union. Geneva, Ashtabula county, 3,443 Union. Janesville, Muskingum Co., Union—gain of 26. Grafton, Lorain Co., 63 Union. Cuyahoga Co., 104 Union. Windham, 281 Union. Waukesha, 294 Union. Willoughby, Lake Co., 239 Union. Perry, 122 Union. Elyria, 320 Union. Yellow Creek, Columbiana Co., 15 Union—gain of 23. Painesville, 383 Union—gain of 40. New London, Huron Co., 175 Union. Vermilion, Erie Co., 57 Dem.—gain of 14. Conneaut, Ashtabula Co., 531 Union. Newbury, Cuyahoga Co., 558 Union—gain of 89 votes. Guybaga Falls, 204 Union—gain of 47. Pilsfield, Lorain Co., 65 Union. Berea, 139 Union. Washington township, Wood Co., 97 Union—gain of 47. Gilead township, Wood Co., 145 Union. Cardington, 214 Union. Massillon, 104 Union—gain of 48. Mansfield, 96 Union—gain of 22. Wellington, 160 Union—gain of 13. Johnston, 46 Dem.—gain of 9. Sandusky city, 29 Union. Newark, 229 Union. Defiance township, 114 Dem.—loss of 13.

COLUMBUS, NOV. 9TH.

Indications are that Lincoln will have 35,000 on the home vote. Columbus city, 1st Ward, 73 Union. 2d Ward, 218 Union. 3d Ward, 301 Union. 8th Ward, 12 Union. Hamilton Co., 5,000 Union.

Returns from Southern Ohio show Union gains. Pavia, 119—Dem. gain of 12. The following are Lincoln's maj. in Ohio: Humboldt Co., 5,000. Clark Co., 1,500—gain of 200. Green county, 2,000 Union—gain of 300. Ashland Co., 1,050—gain of 200. Numerous, scattering returns show heavy Union majorities. The Buckeye State is good for Lincoln 50,000 on the home vote. The soldiers' vote will make it 100,000.

MISSOURI.

The Union ticket is doubtless elected. St. Louis, 4,000 Union on the home vote. H. T. Blow is re-elected to Congress by a large majority.

KENTUCKY.

Twenty-eight counties give a Union majority of 230. Louisville, 1,849 Union—Democratic, 4,874. Covington, 601 Union. Talmouth, 695 Union. Lexington, 12 Union. Paris, 63 Dem. Cynthiana, 120 Dem. The returns seem to indicate that the Democrats have carried the State.

Later—Louisville 9th—Partial returns from 28 counties in Kentucky, excluding Jefferson; give Lincoln 250 maj.

NEW YORK.

Returns show the election to Congress of Darling over Fernando Wood. Henry J. Raymond, Union, is elected in the 6th district of New York city, and Humphrey, Union, from Brooklyn. Taylor, Dem., in the 5th, and Chandler, Dem., in the 7th districts, are also elected.

The vote of New York City, stands thus: Lincoln, 36,423; McClellan, 32,329. The city vote at the last Governor election was as follows: Republican, 36,122; Democrat, 73,727.

Returns from 100 towns and two counties give Lincoln 20,704 maj.

In 8 towns and cities, including Albany, Buffalo, Troy, Schenectady and Utica, and also three counties, McClellan has 16,094 majority.

The N. Y. Herald makes the city 35,500 for McClellan, with all the Wards in. The Union men claim the State by 20,000 majority.

Elmira gives a Union majority of 706.

Binghamton, 353 Union. Kings county, 3,000 Democratic. Jamestown, 469 Union. Randolph, 116 Union. Oswego, 136 Dem. Syracuse, 24 Dem. Aurora, 254 Union. Wellsville township, 144 Union. Cuba, 116 Union. Belleville, 25 Union. Fredonia, 154 Union. Owego, 145 Union. Addison, 225 Union. Danby, 10 Union. Ithaca, 150 Union. Corning, 243 Union.

LATER—N. Y. Nov. 9th. Total vote of the city of New York, is 107,777. For McClellan, 75,319; Lincoln, 36,448. Majority for McClellan, 36,887.

Albany gives 2,476 dem. maj.: Seymour's majority was 2,463. Troy, 758 Dem. Little Falls, 226 Dem. Niagara Falls, 92 Dem. Suspension Bridge, 139 Dem. Hornellsville, 66 Dem. Schenectady, 229 Dem. Hudson, 217 Dem. Lyons, 94 Dem. Rochester, 4 Dem.—a gain of 290. Amsterdam, 139 Union. Saratoga, 221 Union. Mechanicville, 1 U.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Partial returns from 15 counties show a gain of 1200 over the October vote.

Philadelphia, all but four Wards in, 10,

200 Union maj. Erie City, 294 Union—

a gain of 72.

LATER—Philadelphia, Nov. 9th. Returns from the State show almost invariably majorities for Lincoln. Three districts of Westchester borough, show a Union gain of 46 over the October election.

Springfield, 315 Union. Allegheny district, including Pittsburg and Allegheny

City, give Lincoln 700 over the October election. Erie Co., 3,000 Union.

Franklin, 179 Dem. Linesville, 104 U.

Spare Creek, 15 Dem. Allegheny Co.,

29 districts, give a Union gain of 1,055.

Other towns in the western portion of the State, give Union gains.

DELAWARE.

Little Delaware has gone for the Union. Wilmington gives 800 Union majority—a gain of 500.

MARYLAND.

It is stated that Maryland has gone

Union, but we have no returns.

NEW JERSEY.

Essex county, 150—a Union gain of over 1,000. The Legislature six Union, and three Democratic.

MASSACHUSETTS.

One hundred and seventy-eight towns

give, Lincoln 99,000; McClellan 36,631

LATER—Boston, Nov. 9th. In the 3d and 4th districts, Rice and Hooper,

Union candidates for Congress, are far ahead. Boston gives Lincoln 5,000 majority.

RHODE ISLAND.

The Union majority in this State is about 5,000.

VERMONT.

Fifty towns give Union 16,664; Dem.

4,869. The Union majority will probably reach 30,000.

Later—Vermont 30,000 for Lincoln.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

110 towns give Union 22,395; Dem.,

20,291, home vote. The soldiers' vote will largely increase the Union majority.

Local Matters.

THE GREENBACK SALOON. There is a trait in the character of the soldier, aside from his observance of military duty and discipline, so estimable, so manly and so noble, as Temperance—there is no better recommendation for his admittance in social society, and to the communion of all good men. It impresses ~~not~~ ^{not} ~~instils~~ in his mind the principles of honor and virtue—it leads him to shun the ways and paths of the ~~evil~~ ^{evil} ~~door~~—it exalts his mind beyond the influence of the inebriate—it prevents him from frequenting the resorts of rum, vice, sin and iniquity, be they of a palatial or a poverty stricken title and erection—it proves a barrier to the tattered, habiliments, and starvation of his family—it educates his children—it secures him an honorable and respected situation among strangers in a strange land—it procures him a passport to wealth and domestic happiness—it enhances the worldly interests—it insures health—it effects a free thinking mind—it closes the door of the almshouse, the jail, and the prison—it lessens the duties of Sheriff's and Police-men—it causes a wide blank in the list of suicides, homicides, murders, rapes, and incendiaries which all the daily newspapers of the world—it saves the soldier from confinement in the guard-houses—it prevents the wearing of ball and chain—it bars the inflicting of punishment by a Court Martial—it saves two-thirds of his $16 monthly pay—it commands the esteem and respect of his Commanding Officer—it fits him for his guard parade, or drill duty, without a murmur—it saves him from the Surgeon's knife, lancet, ipecac and pills—it holds him from a drunkard's grave, and if he will but follow the teachings of the "Good Templars" Constitution, it will fit him for heaven.

The California Volunteers at Camp Douglas have more names enrolled as Good Templars than any other two regiments of soldiers in the U. S. Army—and with but few instances have their solemn obligations been broken. These few names stand blackened upon the record—but they are few, very few. Most of the members of Garrison Lodge No. 65, on being mustered out of service, and as they left our Camp, instead of withdrawing from that noble order, took with them to their several places of destination their Clearance Cards, with the full and resolute determination to remain staunch and true to the cause of Temperance, as they have been and ever will be to the flag of our Union. They leave us with our fullest confidence and our best wishes for their prosperity. They are fitted for any walk in life to which their abilities and inclinations are a lapted. Such men as those we have mentioned will command the respect, influence and confidence of all worthy, intelligent and honorable citizens wherever they go.

POCATELLO.—So far as the sentiment expressed in the column of the S. L. City Daily sheet goes, it leaves us in a bewilderment and uncertainty as to what course the saintly community in our vicinity would deem advisable for us to pursue in the quelling of the degradations of the red skins, or for the extermination of the savage chiefs. The editor thereof certainly acts in strange contrast with the creeds and revelations expounded ~~strength~~ ^{strength} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~Divines~~ ^{Divines} in the pulpit of the Tabernacle—as they have ever bitterly denounced the location of the Volunteers on the "Bench" as being the greatest detriment to the previously peaceful Indian, and that sabres, carbines and muskets were unessential in the peace-making of the red skins. Now, in direct contradiction to this, the Telegraph prints largely about the lack of vigilance and inefficiency on the part of officials in general, and winds up with "Pocatello should be hung."

What shall be done brother Telegraph? If you would only issue your orders with sufficient promptitude, the Indian Department might possibly listen to your sage counsel—but when you growl, do it consistently—though at the same time you will do well to bear in mind that Pocatello will be justly dealt with, and that there are here in this Territory men at the head of affairs who will long be able to perform their duty without the aid of advice from the Telegraph.

THE GREENBACK SALOON. The "Greenback Saloon" is open for the patronage of all lovers of good drink. The style in which the keeper of this resort handles the glasses is a sufficient recommendation for the palatable "eye-openers," etc., which he mixes therein.

The National Minstrels still continue to draw crowded houses. Their programmes are new every night. Billy Shepperd still continues to bring down the house with his dancing and imitations of the real darkey.

JEFF. DAVIS' FAMILY LEAVE RICHMOND.—To-day we received tidings that, in the excitement of last Thursday, the family of Jeff. Davis packed their small traps and started in haste southward. The Richmond papers give even more gloomier pictures of the consternation that prevailed in that city on our approach than any that have been previously received.—Everybody was required to take up arms—clergymen, school teachers, printers, bakers, clerks, laborers, marketmen, loafers, government officials, professional gentlemen, negroes, mechanics—every class of men of all ages capable of walking and shooting a gun. The universal conscription was inexorable and impartial. Even the sick and wounded from their military hospitals—those of them who could walk—were compelled to go. It must have been a pleasant day. And yet withal, to quote a Richmond paper of a subsequent date, "the affairs of the confederacy are certainly brightening. The entire horizon shows but one cloudy spot." Or, as another puts it, "that the present condition of affairs, compared with that of any previous year at the same season, at least since 1861, is greatly in our (rebel) favor, we think can hardly be denied." The Whig is "confident as it can be of anything whatever," "that General Lee can keep Grant out of Richmond from this time until doomsday." Great victories are claimed, of course, as well in front of Petersburg as in this region. The action and the words hardly correspond.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

GOVERNOR SEYMOUR.—When Governor Seymour had finished his speech last night, we asked one of his audience to state the point of his argument. We were told that he affirmed that the Administration had ruined the country, and was ruining it more and more every day; that it was already irretrievably ruined, and that only the Democrats could restore it from ruin. If Governor Seymour did not say this, he said something so much like it that our informant may be pardoned for his error. The Chicago Convention gravely declared that the only way to save the Union is to make immediate peace with its enemies, and, as if ambitious to excel even this absurdity, pronounced the war to be a disastrous failure, and then nominated the very man responsible for our worst defeats.—Phil'a Press, October 6th.

HEROISM OF AN ENGINEER.—The Elmira (N. Y.) Gazette records the following act of sublime devotion to duty and of heroic self-abnegation:

The engineer on the train conveying prisoners to this place, when the collision was discovered to be unavoidable, with certain death staring him in the face, heroically remained at his post and reversed the engine, and was buried in the wreck. When found, his back was against the boiler, and he was literally burned to death. He told those who came to his assistance to keep away from him for their own safety, as he feared the boiler would burst. Every exertion was made to extricate him, but without avail until life was extinct. His name was William Ingram.

If there are no clouds, and the wind blows from the north, it is a certain sign of fine weather.
